SOJOURNER TRUTH BUST ACCEPTANCE AND DISPLAY

Mr. POMBO. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the Committee on House Administration be discharged from further consideration of the bill (H.R. 4510) to direct the Joint Committee on the Library to accept the donation of a bust depicting Sojourner Truth and to display the bust in a suitable location in the rotunda of the Capitol, and ask for its immediate consideration in the House.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

The Clerk read the bill, as follows:

H.R. 4510

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. FINDINGS.

Congress finds as follows:

(1) Sojourner Truth was a towering figure among the founders of the movement for women's suffrage in the United States, and no monument that does not include her can accurately represent this important development in our Nation's history.

(2) The statue known as the Portrait Monument, originally presented to Congress in 1920 in honor of the passage of the Nineteenth Amendment guaranteeing women the right to vote and presently exhibited in the rotunda of the Capitol, portrays several early suffragists who were Sojourner Truth's contemporaries but not Sojourner Truth herself, the only African American among the group.

SEC. 2. ACCEPTANCE AND DISPLAY OF BUST OF SOJOURNER TRUTH IN ROTUNDA OF CAPITOL.

(a) ACCEPTANCE OF DONATION OF BUST.—Not later than 2 years after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Joint Committee on the Library shall accept the donation of a bust depicting Sojourner Truth, subject to such terms and conditions as the Joint Committee considers appropriate.

(b) DISPLAY.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The Joint Committee shall place the bust accepted under subsection (a) in a suitable permanent location in the rotunda of the Capitol.

(2) PLACEMENT NEAR PORTRAIT MONUMENT.—It is the sense of Congress that the most suitable location for the placement of the bust accepted under subsection (a) is a location which is adjacent to the statue known as the Portrait Monument.

AMENDMENT IN THE NATURE OF A SUBSTITUTE
OFFERED BY MR. POMBO

Mr. POMBO. Mr. Speaker, I offer an amendment in the nature of a substitute.

The Clerk read as follows:

Strike all after the enacting clause and insert the following:

SECTION 1. FINDINGS.

Congress finds as follows:

(1) Sojourner Truth was a towering figure among the founders of the movement for women's suffrage in the United States, and no monument that does not include her can accurately represent this important development in our Nation's history.

(2) The statue known as the Portrait Monument, originally presented to Congress in 1920 in honor of the passage of the Nineteenth Amendment guaranteeing women the right to vote and presently exhibited in the rotunda of the Capitol, portrays several early suffragists who were Sojourner Truth's contemporaries but not Sojourner Truth herself, the only African American among the group.

SEC. 2. ACCEPTANCE AND DISPLAY OF BUST OF SOJOURNER TRUTH IN CAPITOL.

(a) ACCEPTANCE OF DONATION OF BUST.—Not later than 2 years after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Joint Committee on the Library shall accept the donation of a bust depicting Sojourner Truth, subject to such terms and conditions as the Joint Committee considers appropriate.

(b) DISPLAY.—The Joint Committee shall place the bust accepted under subsection (a) in a suitable permanent location in the Capitol.

Ms. MILLENDER-MCDONALD. Mr. Speaker, I am happy that tonight this House will pass a bill that enjoys strong bipartisan support of 221 cosponsors that honors the contribution of another woman suffragist—Sojourner Truth. Sojourner Truth was a towering figure among the founders of the movement for women's suffrage in the United States.

Over 1,000 civic, religious, political, cultural, fraternal, business, and labor organizations and the National Congress of Black Women (NCBW), support this legislation.

Specifically, this legislation directs the Joint Committee on the Library to accept the donations for a bust depicting Sojourner Truth and to display it in an appropriate location within the Halls of Congress.

One of the initial proponents of the "Honor Sojourner Truth" initiative, was the late Dr. C. Delores Tucker and past President of the NCBW, who fought for Congress to pass this legislation.

Recognition of Sojourner Truth as one of the great women's rights leaders is well deserved.

Mr. Speaker, it has been a pleasure working with you on this very important legislation, and the sponsors of this legislation, Congresswoman SHEILA JACKSON-LEE, who worked tirelessly for the passage of this important legislation and to fulfill a promise made to Dr. Tucker.

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of my bill, H.R. 4510 which would direct the Joint Committee on the Library to accept the donation of a bust depicting Sojourner Truth and to display the bust in a suitable location in the Capitol. No one has been more instrumental in helping to bring this vision of mind to reality than the late Dr. C. Delores Tucker who was a close and valued friend for many years. Her crusade for women's and civil rights served not only as an inspiration to women, minorities, and other traditionally disadvantaged groups, but to all of society, and her lifelong service indeed worked for its betterment. From her devout involvement in the Democratic Party to her founding of the Philadelphia Martin Luther King, Jr. Association for Non-Violent Change, she embodied the tenacity and courage necessary to eradicate the disparities and bigotry that continues to constrain the attainment of equality. Of her many endearing qualities were the fact that her service was never for personal gain and that it was boundless—she never hesitated to travel the extra mile to help others. This was evident in her singular work as the lead advocate to urge the recognition and honor of abolitionist Sojourner Truth with the addition of her likeness to the statue commemorating women's suffrage in the United States Capitol. Tonight I am sure she is smiling with joy because it is due to her determined, passionate, and powerful efforts that have ultimately resulted in us honoring Sojourner Truth.

I would also like to thank Representatives BOB NEY, JUANITA MILLENDER-MCDONALD and DIANE WATSON. Their efforts are truly worth mentioning for they have been major contributors in making this monumental moment. In particular, Representative WATSON worked very hard to see that the suffrage movement in the House would include all women who contributed to the movement including an ex-slave named Sojourner Truth. It is also important that I mention that Representative MILLENDER-MCDONALD also worked closely with the late Dr. C. Delores Tucker to see this vision become a reality.

As noted in the beginning of my statement, this long overdue legislation directs the Joint Committee on the Library to accept the donation of a bust depicting Sojourner Truth and to display it in an appropriate location within the Halls of Congress. In a prior iteration of this legislation in the 108th Congress, H.R. 601, we were able to obtain 82 cosponsors in the House, and its companion bill in the Senate, S. 2600, gleaned 20 bi-partisan cosponsors. The key distinction between those bills and the measure before us now is the fact that the latter does not purport to alter the existing "Portrait Monument" in any way; nor does it require the receipt of any monies or for Congress to address any tax consequences.

Let me now take some time to speak on the women we honor tonight. Sojourner Truth was born in 1797 in Ulster County, a Dutch settlement in upstate New York. Her given name was Isabella Baumfree. She was one of 13 children born to slave parents. She spoke only Dutch until she was sold from her family around the age of eleven. Because of the cruel treatment she suffered at the hands of her new master she learned to speak English quickly, but would continue to speak with a Dutch accent for the rest of her life. Sojourner Truth was sold several times and suffered many hardships under slavery, but her mother endowed her with a deep, unwavering Christian faith that carried her through these trials for her entire life. Forced to submit to the will of her third master, John Dumont, Sojourner Truth married an older slave named Thomas. Thomas and Sojourner Truth had five children. She stayed on the Dumont farm until a few months before the state of New York ended slavery in 1828. Dumont had promised Sojourner Truth freedom a year before the state emancipation. When Dumont reneged on his promise, Sojourner Truth ran away with her infant son.

Sojourner Truth eventually settled in New York City, working as a domestic for several religious communes. Sojourner Truth was inspired by a spiritual revelation that would forever change her life. She changed her name from Isabella Baumfree to Sojourner Truth and walked through Long Island and Connecticut, preaching "God's truth and plan for salvation." After months of travel, she arrived in Northampton, MA, and joined the utopian community "The Northampton Association for Education and Industry," where she met and worked with abolitionists such as William Lloyd Garrison, Frederick Douglass and Olive Gilbert. Her dictated memoirs were published in 1850 as The Narrative of Sojourner Truth: A Northern Slave. She eventually added abolitionism and women's suffrage to her oratory, often giving personal testimony about her experiences as a slave. In 1851, she spoke at a Women's Convention in Akron, Ohio. The legendary phrase, "Ain't I a Woman?" was associated with Sojourner Truth after this speech.

After the Civil War ended, she worked tirelessly to aid the newly-freed southern slaves.

She even attempted to petition Congress to give the ex-slaves land in the "new West." Sojourner Truth continued preaching and lecturing until ill health forced her to retire.

As I close, it goes with out saying that Sojourner Truth was a great advocate for women and all humankind. She achieved a great deal despite the many hardships she faced. It is because of this that Sojourner Truth truly deserves to be honored and depicted in the Halls of Congress as a member of the suffrage movement.

I urge all my colleagues to support this legislation.

Mr. POMBO (during the reading). Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the amendment in the nature of a substitute be considered as read and printed in the RECORD.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

The amendment in the nature of a substitute was agreed to.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, was read the third time, and passed.

The title of the bill was amended so as to read: "A Bill to direct the Joint Committee on the Library to accept the donation of a bust depicting Sojourner Truth and to display the bust in a suitable location in the Capitol."

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.
